1. 561 Trampoline by Cassina

CHANA RICHARDS: The shape is really interesting. I'd use it on a deck in the Berkshires.

SUZANNE RHEINSTEIN: Ideally, I'd have two of these facing each other. They're fun and unusual. 79.5" w. x 78.5" d. x 28" h.; $16,430. cassina.com

2. Oasi by Paola Lenti

SR: A great sofa for lolling and lounging.

CR: I appreciate the flexibility both with the configuration and armrest inclination. 169" w. x 90" d. x 29" h.; price upon request. paolalenti.com

3. Ottoman by Ligne Roset

CR: I'm ready to curl up and take a nap on this, but the seat height could be challenging for older clients.

SR: It's incredibly casual. Perfect for either side of a fireplace on a terrace. 65" w. x 37" d. x 27" h.; from $4,790. lignerose.com

4. Roma by Derek Castiglioni

SR: It's beautifully detailed, ideal for the Amalfi Coast with an Aperol spritz in hand.

CR: Look at that frame! This was made for a screened-in porch in Charleston.

90.5" w. x 39" d. x 31" h.; price upon request. derekcastiglioni.com

5. Pietro Mosaic Bench by Kelly Behun

CR: This belongs in a foyer with high ceilings. The mosaic inlay is so stunning.

SR: Very chic. It's almost a work of art on its own. 69" w. x 19" d. x 34" h.; price upon request. theinvisiblecollection.com

6. Caribe 2-Seater Bank by Ames

SR: It's cheerful and practical for warm, rainy climates like the tropics.

CR: Hello, gorgeous! I adore the weaving. I wouldn't change a thing. 45" w. x 28" d. x 28" h.; $2,877. ames-shop.de

7. Locus Solus Loveseat by Exteta

CR: It's eye-catching, and I'm intrigued to see it upholstered with a solid seat cushion.

SR: This is a wonderful exclamation point for a patio—a practical art piece. 44" w. x 22" d. x 25" h.; $1,930. artemest.com

8. Rossi Sofa by CB2

SR: It's an updated classic, striking without being too look at me.

CR: The hairpin legs really caught my eye. I'd customize it by making the back adjustable.

101" w. x 34" d. x 30" h.; $1,847. cb2.com
